ARTICLE 5. SPAMMING

5.01 MAXLIFE GLOBAL MANAGEMENT® Strictly Forbids Spamming and Enforces this Policy. We will Terminate Your Account immediately and make you ineligible for a new account if You Spam.

What does spamming mean?

Spamming is the unsolicited and unauthorized sending of e-mails to businesses and people who do not know you personally and have not agreed to receive your messages. Posting Usenet/News Group messages recruiting new members is also considered spamming. Opt-out lists are also not acceptable. Requiring somebody to specifically request removal from a mailing list to prevent solicitation will be considered SPAMMING and is a violation of our Anti-Spam policy. The rule of thumb here is that if somebody did not specifically request the information then it is most likely SPAM.

ARTICLE 6. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

6.01 All notices, requests and other communications shall be deemed to have been received when posted by MAXLIFE GLOBAL MANAGEMENT® on its Web site blog. It shall also be deemed to have been received on the next business day if transmitted by e-mail or any other form of electronic mail to the last known electronic address of the intended recipient.

6.02 Website service interruption:

We will make every effort to keep all websites operational. However, certain technical difficulties may, from time to time, result in temporary service interruptions. The Participant agrees not to hold MAXLIFE GLOBAL MANAGEMENT® liable for any of the consequences of such interruptions.

6.03 Promotional Techniques:

You are free to promote MAXLIFE GLOBAL MANAGEMENT® in all the ways we recommend. The preferred and most effective method for long term success is ‘word of mouth’ recommendation. This can be to people you already know, work colleagues, family members, friends, and to people you think might be interested in earning and additional income by becoming a member and using our products and services (general public).

A replicated website is provided along with other marketing tools. Other acceptable ways to promote the products/program are: submitting to search engines, appropriate directories, through banners, text links, letters of recommendation to newsletter subscribers, or your client base. However, if you use SPAM (in any way, shape or form, including email and newsgroup spamming), or offer the products or program on any WAREZ, CRACK, or SPAM oriented site, your registration will be immediately terminated. Any commission fees not paid up to the point of termination will not be paid to you and will be property of MAXLIFE GLOBAL MANAGEMENT®.
